USPA NEWS - Raja Sikander Khan Attends Sarwar Foundation Charity Dinner in West London

Chairman of the Global Pak Kashmir Supreme Council, Raja Sikander Khan, was a Guest of Honour at a prestigious fundraising charity dinner organised by the Sarwar Foundation, held at the Royal Nawab Banqueting Hall in West London.

Founded by Pakistani-British politician and businessman Chaudhary Muhammad Sarwar, former Governor of Punjab, the Sarwar Foundation is widely recognised for its humanitarian work in Pakistan. The charity focuses on four vital and often neglected areas: healthcare, education, access to clean drinking water, and women's empowerment.

The fundraising dinner was one of the most well-attended charity events of its kind, attracting more than 350 guests, including distinguished dignitaries, community leaders, politicians, business figures and prominent members of communities from across the United Kingdom.

Guests came together in support of the Foundation's humanitarian mission and demonstrated remarkable generosity, making substantial donations towards helping underprivileged and vulnerable people in Pakistan.

Speaking on the occasion, Raja Sikander Khan expressed his appreciation for the Sarwar Foundation's efforts and praised the generosity of the guests who contributed to this important humanitarian cause. He highlighted the importance of supporting initiatives that provide essential healthcare, education, clean water and opportunities for women and disadvantaged communities.
